GOLD FALLS AS F.U.N. BEGINS
PATIENCE REQUIRED FOR POSITIVE IMPACT

The Market in Depth

The numismatic show circuit is in full swing again. Orlando is the destination and many dealers are undoubtedly participating in some type of makeshift pre-show bourse or perhaps on a slightly smaller scale in the confines of hotel rooms. Gold Spot's volatility - a $40 decline from one day to the next - has likely induced caution among some dealers. In many instances, there may be a need to reevaluate their acquisition strategy on the bourse of the FUN show. Last week, the plan heading into Orlando for some was to buy as much Gold as possible, while others hoping for the same scenario though participating on the sellers side of the aisle. Certainly, precious metals remain a central focus, albeit a modified mindset if Gold continues to display increased volatility. Gold is now trading below the $1,200 mark at $1,195 an ounce.

In March of this year, we reported a number of product launches and services. More recently various hobby entities, in particular the two major grading services, the PNG, and ICTA, have all made strides to make the hobby, figuratively speaking, a "better and fairer place" for everyone. Like many such initiatives, patience is of the essence. Experience has shown all of us that it takes time until such changes show a salutary effect on the entire community. Certified coins holdered with a "+" grade have yet to dramatically affect the market as some are predicting. The number of coins currently in play is limited. In many instances, the first coins sent in for review are precisely the coins that those in possession do not intend to sell anytime soon. Coin doctoring - hitherto the white elephant of numismatics - prompted PCGS to initiate a lawsuit, naming names and discussing particular coins alleging the "doctors'" handiwork. Many believe that the mere existence of this lawsuit may already have influenced the hobby for the better.

Scotsman is set to take the gavel next, following the FUN show and auction by Heritage. Their Midwest Summer Sale is scheduled for July 23 in Saint Charles, MO. The 1,242 lots of U.S. Coins and Paper Money include a good deal of collector fare and additionally a solid selection of five figure items. A few of the many highlights are included herein. Wow, it is time to mention the ANA's Worlds Fair of Money, including numerous exhibits, seminars and presentations that will take place Aug 10-14 in Boston, MA. Bob Simpson will display a complete seven-coin set of Bickford Patterns. An example of the 1874 $10 Bickford, one of two known, sold for $1.265 million earlier this year. One of the two known 1861 $20 Libs with Paquet Reverse and 1921 Roman Finish $20 Saint-Gaudens will also be on display along with Boston-related early Americana.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: Visibly unchanged in the Unc grades, nevertheless numerous retail transactions in the past month reveal that Bid is usually exceeded. Increasing one's Bid on select issues may pick off the many coins that instead wind up in online auctions. In some instances, there are undoubtedly coins from a dealer's inventory that might have sold dealer-to-dealer, a win-win situation when the time and incidentals are factored in.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Circ material remains status-quo in grades of G to AU. The short-set, as always, is showing strong support in MS63 and MS64. Only one increase to report in Gem, the 1941S climbs to a higher Bid of $770. Proof Singles continue to trade within Bid and Ask for the most part.

DOLLARS: Minor adjustments, all in a northerly direction, have been recorded for a few Carson City issues. These cartwheels are currently available in the marketplace and numerous transactions where solid coins have sold for below Bid can be easily identified. Circ 1921 Morgans, are now wanted at $17.85 with holed, dateless, damaged and slicks being rejected. This particular buyer is limiting the entire purchase to 100 coins — not the type of quantity required to move the entire market. Bid will remain unchanged here. At least one marketmaker in Peace Dollars is currently looking for common dates in PCGS MS67 and many of the scarcest dates in PCGS MS66.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Large quantity offerings of 1999S Silver Proof Sets for reduced levels has resulted in the lowering of Bid, now $160. Premiere Silver Proof Sets are still under siege and Bid has advanced again for 1995 and 1997 sets. Mint Sets are stable with a number of buyers available at or near Bid for most issues.

COMMEMORATIVES: At least one dealer wants one of the eight 1926 Sesquicentennials pretty badly jumping Bid to $25,000 from $20,000 in MS66. A handful of other adjustments, all of them rather trivial, reflecting more accurately the actual Ask prices on coins offered this past week. Gold Commems are at it again by way of another wave of increases. Modern Gold Commems are down in response to Spot's $45 descent from the last time we visited this segment. Five ounce bullion versions of the National Park Quarters will reportedly be making their debut thru authorized distributors sometime this month.

TYPE: Proof Type, more than any other area of the market, shows decidedly mixed results. Dealers are Bidding for nearly everything in all four grade columns, especially within the Silver issues. Mint State Type is also mixed, reflecting a thorough review of recent trades relevant to this area.

GOLD: Gold Type is decidedly mixed with a downside bias as dealers re-evaluate their positions following last week's fallout to Gold Spot. Recent volatility has not showed any signs of abatement in at least three sessions. A side-by-side with the July 2 installment of the newsletter reveals that many if not most of the advances adhering to Double Eagles last week were reversed this week. Proof American Gold Eagles are off a tad in all denominations, now Bid $1,980 an ounce.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. These coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified) but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the level at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder but will be guided by Bids which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction, you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

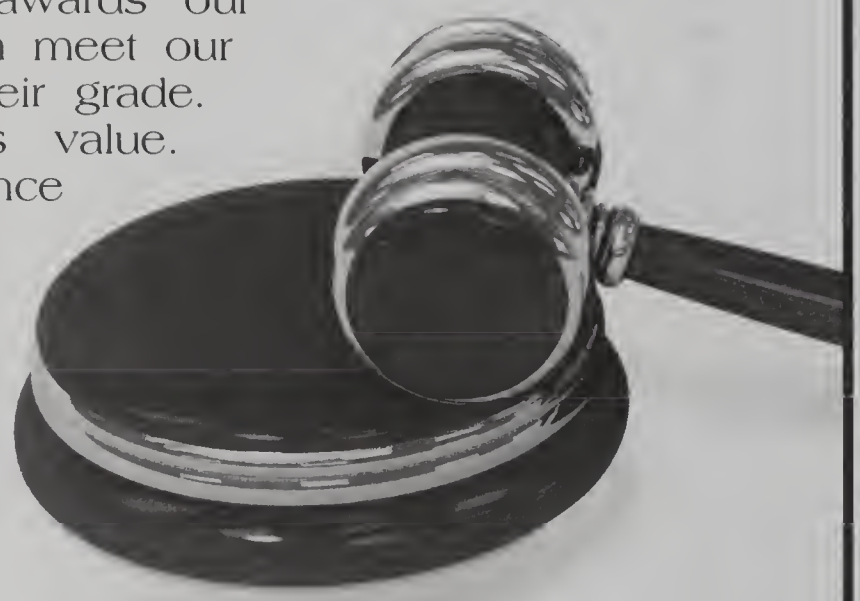
Who says CAC coins bring a premium?

It makes perfect sense that CAC stickered coins would trade at a premium. That is because CAC verifies previously graded coins and awards our green sticker only to those coins which meet our stringent standards for quality within their grade. After all, quality is what determines value. A CAC sticker means you can have confidence in the value of a coin.



So if you are wondering, "Do CAC coins really bring a premium?" Just listen to what the press and America's top auction companies are saying!

Fox Business Network
"CAC has come along at just the right time with a seal of approval to authenticate the best of breed coins."

Jim Kingsland,
Editor

Coin Values, August 2008
"At recent coin shows, dealers were quoting premiums that ranged from 5 to 15 percent higher than selling prices for non-CAC approved coins. Scarce coins, and those that have spectacular eye-appeal, certified by CAC, are bringing 20 to 25 percent more than non-CAC approved coins."

Mark Ferguson

The Coin Dealer Newsletter
"Another important issue in the current market is the solid consensus that CAC stickered coins are on an ever-growing number of dealer radar screens. Driving this relatively new, intense focus is the undeniable fact that collectors are acutely aware of the difference in value that often exists between a CAC versus a non-CAC coin. From a bottom line perspective, this situation can't be ignored, regardless of one's personal opinion of the little green bean."

August 14, 2009

Ira and Larry Goldberg Auctioneers
"It is very simple, CAC coins bring premiums!"

Larry Goldberg

Stack's
"Many of our clients here at Stack's are very enthusiastic about the Certified Acceptance Corporation review of PCGS and NGC coins and your confirmation of quality beyond the stated grading number. In fact, we have had so much demand for CAC labeled coins that we recently modified our website search engine to facilitate bidders finding CAC coins in our upcoming auctions. I congratulate you on your well-deserved success and the great contribution CAC is making to numismatics."

Q. David Bowers,
Chairman

Bowers and Merena Auctions
"CAC coins continue to bring strong prices in our auctions. More and more collectors are asking for the "green bean"."

Steve Deeds,
President

Heritage Auction Galleries
"CAC coins tend to attract more bidders, and almost always realize premium prices in our auctions."

Todd Imhof,
Executive Vice President

DLRC Auctions
"As an Internet-based coin auction company, we have seen a distinct advantage to CAC-approved coins over their non-stickered counterparts. I think that the sticker is especially helpful in giving bidders added security that they are going to get a high quality coin for the grade. Greater confidence equal more bids, plain and simple."

John Feigenbaum,
President

$7.4 MILLION CAPTURED IN FLORIDA
GREAT COINS ARE HOT

The Market in Depth

Summer FUN is now history with rather mixed experiences being reported from those who attended. For many, this show was like Night and Day when compared to the Winter show held each January. One dealership reported that they had their most successful trip to Florida of all time. Having a good show comes down to one's own objectives, whether that is on the buying or selling side is irrelevant. An official public auction by Heritage that was held at the convention site in conjunction with the show tallied over $7.4 million. An 1867 Shield Nickel with Rays graded PR65 Cameo by NGC realized $57,500 taking top honors at the sale. This particular piece represents a great coin, a text book example of what is hot in the current market. This is a classic rarity, and yet this example boasts even further importance. Research concludes the small mintage of Proofs is further distinguished according to the dies used to strike them. Dealers have stated for a while now that current buyers respond very favorably to such material and that these buyers exist across the entire market from the guy spending $250 a coin to buyers paying up to $250,000. Auction results are easily found to support the notion that collectors at both ends of the spectrum are out there in growing numbers, actively participating in the hobby. Demand continues to far outweigh supplies of attractive, problem-free material that also has some rarity or a neat story. To cite some recent stunning examples, an 1842O Small Date Liberty Seated Quarter raged to $4,213 against a Bid of $1,500 in VF20 and $2,200 in XF40. This NGC VF25 displayed album toning rarely seen on New Orleans Quarters and a rare variety tossed into the mix. An 1819/8 Capped Bust Half, PCGS MS63 fetched $5,750 against Bid of $2,450. More of the many Heritage auction highlights are included herein.

It has been reported that at least 13 individuals have been identified by the secret service as being involved in the "sandwich" counterfeits coming out of Northern California. Up until now it has been primarily Morgan Dollars that have been split and combined to make a rare date and mintmark combination. The latest incident involves a 1945 Mercury Dime residing in a fraudulent PCGS holder claiming an MS65FB grade. This coin has one of the lowest PCGS pops for a Gem Fully Split Band Merc, currently at 34.

Many dealers will be taking a much needed vacation following the PCGS event in Vegas and the July 23 sale being held by Scotsman in St. Charles, Missouri. Thereafter the action will pick-up pretty quickly with a pair of pre-shows being held in Boston along with a Bowers and Merena sale on Aug 7. The big ANA World's Fair of Money show is set for Aug 10-14, with three live multi-session auctions by Heritage.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Mint State Franklins are targeted at higher levels for rolls dated 1961. Most other bullion related issues back pedal from a lower Silver Spot. Lincoln Cent Rolls enter the market in droves at reduced levels resulting in minus signs.

MERCURY DIMES: Decent demand persists for MS64FB fare including the famed over date 1942/41. Some dealers see strong opportunities rather than a lack of material. Today's collectors digest huge amounts of information from the internet, fueling an enthusiasm to locate coins perfectly satisfying their desires.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: The short-set in MS63 and MS64 reflects solid dealer interest. Auctions, large and small, come and go with little in the way of negative activity sticking to this series. The presence of some extremely high end coins, however, that have lingered in the market place, one month offered at retail followed by an auction appearance where it goes unsold may be somewhat unsettling.

DOLLARS: Quality applies equally well to the common dates as it does to the better dates and the truly rare. Keep in mind of course that blast white may not exist for some issues at the higher grade levels. Here again is where sellers have to earn their keep by staying current with today's, knowledgeable collectors. Old school rainbow toning brings money based upon each coins individual merit, but almost always a strong premium to Bid. Some see opportunity here by shrewdly working buying and selling venues very differently. Peace Dollars in grades VG, F, VF, XF and AU50 have at least one dealer who will take a quantity for VG Bid to a hair more.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: That same dealer, who week after week has pushed Bid higher in an effort to acquire 1995 and 1997 Premier Silver Proof Sets, is doing it again. He warns though that the standing order from his client may fill presenting the implication that he may not pay these levels for much longer. Mint Sets remain stable for the most part.

COMMEMORATIVES: Many designs trudge higher in grades up to MS66. The Hawaiian Sesquicentennial continues its reign as the MS66 Bid king, now at $27,500. This has pushed Bid into the six figure range for the 50 piece Type set. Markets are still being made within the Classic Gold Commem series at current levels.

TYPE: Proof Type remains super strong in grades 63 to 65. Specific issues targeted at Bid include: Indian Head Cents, Liberty Seated Dollars, both, With and Without Motto, and Liberty Nickels with Cents. The latter, strides upward in Gem to $475 and is oftentimes one of the issues first embraced by blossoming Proof Type collectors. Each of the three Barber denoms, sour as Liberty's expression might appear to some, gleefully presses to new, higher levels in MS63-MS65. These have really taken off since mid April, by way of multiple active buyers.

GOLD: Type Gold continues to undergo tweaks, some major while most are minor and relative to Gold Spot. Major moves are seen this week for Circulated Half Eagles as supplies dwindle, pressing the need for inventory replenishment. With Motto $5 Libs are leading the way here, some 10 percent higher across-the-board from last week.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the price at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

BARBERS HOT FOR BOSTON ANA
DYNAMICS OF COLLECTING REMAIN CONSTANT

The Market in Depth

Collectors chase coins, sometimes for the rarity, often for historical or numismatic significance, and mostly that age-old passion to organize, arrange, and exhibit tangible relics of our collective day-to-day experience. In addition to the pleasure and enjoyment one derives from collecting coins, the store of value cannot be overlooked. Rarity was formerly determined by expert consensus – empirical observation by those with the most experience. Rarity is still determined that way but with a much greater degree of confidence through tabulated population reports. Collectors direct their energy in the building of sets. A desire to display a set and share it with fellow hobbyists has not changed. The internet provides a medium however, that greatly facilitates one's ability to exhibit, particularly with the implementation of the digital set registry. Many of us want to improve a coins appearance – nothing novel here. Over the years, many methods have been employed, the vast majority ultimately regarded as harmful to the coins aesthetics and therefore its value. Even the methods considered acceptable are easily abused. Sometimes circumstances dictate that a collector acquire a coin that has "problems." Many of us can detect a problem coin intuitively; fewer of us are able to identify the precise nature of the problem. Establishing such coins' monetary value is therefore tricky and often results in illiquid items. Certification of coins as genuine and noting the precise problem greatly facilitates liquidity (and enjoyment for the hobbyist). Finally, at the end of the day our egos suggest that we know how our coins compare to those of other collectors. Plain and simple: Who has the best stuff? Grading may be an art, as is playing the violin. Some violinists are better than others, but it takes experts to quantify what is, essentially, a subjective reality. The assignment of "+" grades and/or CAC approval is an art form practiced by experts.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: Several better date Denver issues are targeted by dealers in nearly every published grade. Three of the issues, the 1919D, 1927D and 1928D, are now Bid higher in MS64FB, moving up to $5,450, $1,575 and $785, respectively.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: A couple of San Francisco treats — the 1935S and 1940S have advanced in Gem. The modestly scarce 1935S installment with a PCGS/NGC pop of 292/168 in MS65 is now commanding a summer-cool $2,500.

DOLLARS: Morgan Dollars are one of the few segments not spilling over with positive momentum. Nevertheless, dealers have Bids in place at or near published levels for most issues in MS63 through MS65. We cannot stress enough that present levels assume brilliant, white coins. Warning message from the wire: "Just had a 1925S Dollar PCGS MS65 in the store. Has same serial number as one on craigslist or whatever. Anyways it's counterfeit."

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: The inaugural Proof Set from 1936 is wanted at Bid by many parties, but must be "retail friendly." The entire segment remains incredibly active on the buy (Bid) side. Dealers normally associated as market-makers in very different segments are posting Bids for a wide range of Sets both Proof and Mint from 1957 to the present and 1960 to the present, respectively, "clean sets for retail" the only qualification.

COMMEMORATIVES: Classic Silver is making some noise in the higher grades of MS65-66 as multiple issues advance, with the 1926 Sesqui trumpeting the way to $30,000 in MS66. Quality is essential, recent transactions reveal a PCGS example selling for $43K while an NGC specimen just went off for $13,800. The Texas Centennial Type is the lone star in MS64 showing a modest gain. Gold Commems enjoy rock solid support in MS63 to MS66. Both Grant Dollars and $2½ Pan-Pacs extend demand down into AU50 territory. 11-piece sets are also desired in AU50-MS60 grades at five percent back of Bid. First Spouse Gold Bids continue to rise for select issues dated 2008.

TYPE: Barber coinage takes another step forward in all Mint State grades. Bid support persists for most Silver and Nickel design Types from the 1830's through the early Twentieth Century. Heading into the "big show" this could translate into a tremendous amount of activity on both sides of the aisle. Barber Halves in MS64 are now Bid one-grand, the last time this issue was in four-figure territory was Feb 2009. Circulated Liberty Seated Dollars are eagerly sought in G4 to AU50. Proof Indian Head Cents (1864 to 1909) command attention, displaying upward movement in most grades and colors from Choice thru Gem. Every Proof Nickel Type has buyers available at current levels. All Liberty Seated Type from the Quarter to the Dollar is targeted at Bid as well as Twenty Cent Pieces, Trade and Gobrecht Dollars.

GOLD: Spot briefly emerges from the $1,200 doldrums only to find it sailing even further downwind, touching on a two month low of $1,182. While the bullion-like generic $20 Saints and Libs from VF20 to MS62 follow the Spot current, the smaller dinghys somehow manage to catch a gale force wind in MS62 thru MS64. Spreads have tightened a bit on Gem and better material by way of lower Asking prices.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily represent the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen raw coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by levels which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer to Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

To a Coin Collector, Confidence is Priceless

Everyone wants to be confident about the quality of a coin. When it's a CAC-verified coin, you can trade with confidence.

Whether you're a novice or advanced collector, you know that quality is what determines the value of a rare coin. The problem is, within any certified coin grade, not all coins are "solid" quality coins. Now there's an easy way to identify coins that are solid for the grade - just look for the CAC verification sticker.

CAC verifies previously graded coins and awards our green sticker only to those coins which meet our high standards for quality within their grade. What's more, CAC is a powerful market maker for CAC verified coins. In fact, CAC has recently purchased over $100,000,000 worth of CAC verified coins.

Want confidence in the value of a coin? Look for the CAC sticker.

For more confidence in the value of a coin, look for the CAC green sticker.

Sight-Seen wholesale prices for accurately graded U.S. Coins – Certified or Raw

Single copy price $4.00 Vol. XLVIII No. 31 July 30, 2010 ...a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

STRONG MARKET EXPECTED IN BOSTON
PCGS "+" GRADES MORE THAN SECURE

The Market in Depth

Two recently concluded regional events confirm what many dealers have reported for some time now, that the "right" coins sell effortlessly. Conversely, locating and buying coins that one can turn around and sell with such ease requires an extraordinary amount of effort. One example, a rather modestly priced item from the Jul 23 Scotsman sale that realized a total of $1.48 million in St. Charles, MO. An 1806 Pointed 6 Capped Bust Half Dollar, O-115, graded Fine by the cataloger, realized $518 and finishing just shy of the $550 Bid in VF. What makes this particular example "unique" is not the die variety, rather its toning. A type of toning that develops when stored in a paper envelope of a certain type, and only when having resided in the envelope, entirely undisturbed for perhaps a generation or more. Such material, those that are among this group of easy sellers are found across the gamut of U.S coins, at all price levels, and in all grades. Even coins certified as genuine or authentic are potentially "right" coins. A few of the many highlights from the Scotsman sale are listed below. The recently concluded PCGS Members Only show in Vegas may have hit the jackpot according to some of the dealers and collectors in attendance. One dealer commented it was the company's best show ever, while another shared purchases with us, including a $140K $20 Lib. Another dealer stated that he was happy with the results of a submission of coins that were reviewed for Secure Plus status. PCGS announced that it is now possible to receive the "+" grade through several tiers of service and not exclusively with Secure Plus. Except for regular service, this change will be free of charge and will begin Aug 1 just in time for the Baltimore pre-shows. Now similar to NGC's plus program, it will be difficult to identify which slabs were looked at and determined to not be worthy of the plus addition to grade.

The Health Care Reform Act, signed into law and effective Jan 2012, includes reporting requirements involving a staggering amount of paperwork, creating a real hardship for most coin dealers. Whether such legislation is strictly enforced, ignored, or removed altogether will depend in large part on those who would be most severely impacted to get involved. ICTA's urgent appeal to contact legislators is repeated in light of the mainstream media noticing this story and resulting in a flood of activity at coin shops across the country.

Two Pre-shows are set to take place in Boston, the Bay State Coin Show and the 2010 Boston Show, both running Aug 6 to Aug 8 with a third being held Sunday in Auburn. The Bowers auction is set for Aug 7 at the Park Plaza hotel along with the Stack's Sale on Aug 8. The ANA World's Fair of Money preceded by PNG day is scheduled for Aug 10 to 14 with a Heritage sale to run concurrently with the show.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Kennedy Half Dollars see steady demand all around with material from the '90s especially sought. Could this be in anticipation of a 50th anniversary promotion in 2013? Jefferson Nickel rolls enjoy visible Bids at current levels for 1943-44 material while the 2004 issues take a hit, favoring war over peace.

MERCURY DIMES: Upcoming auctions include a pair of '16D graded PCGS AU55FB and MS62FB. The #1 all time finest Registry Set is also being offered. Each issue listed is PCGS, FB and CAC endorsed: '16D MS67, '19S MS66, '20S MS67, '29D MS68, and on and on.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Upcoming sales include a 1935S graded NGC MS66+ and a 1936 NGC MS67+. Two such + graded coins obviously do not make a market, but it is a start. We should see even more + grades in light of the recent change at PCGS.

DOLLARS: Morgan Dollars continue to shine in Circ grades thru Superb Gem. One dealer is in particular need of slightly better dates in the mid Mint State grades, and it does not matter who did the slabbing, they just need to be un-toned. Peace Dollars have accumulated a nice underpinning of dealer support at or near Bid in grades MS63 to MS65 and this is not the only market segment to acquire such strong support as of late.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Lincoln Coin and Chronicle Sets jump to $145 Bid. The 4-piece Lincoln Cent Proof Set, which debuted at Bid of $14, moves up to $15 this week. Bids are for clean, no problem sets, and must include all original packaging, indeed a requirement that adheres to Proof Sets from the '55 Flat Pack to the present. 1999 Proof Sets are available in quantity and suggests that the glut of sets made for sale recently are still at large. Mint Sets remain healthy throughout.

COMMEMORATIVES: Classic Silver is louder than last week with material in the MS60-64 grade range turning up the decibel level. The Stone Mountain has a higher Bid of $140 in MS64 with a near 100% increase in the last year. A ferocious jump to freedom after doing time since 2000 at the $70 level. The '36D San Diego ups the ante in Gem continuing on a five month rally. Gold Commems remain strong at current levels in most grades including the pair of $50 Slugs.

TYPE: Generally speaking, Early Type is eagerly sought, though Bidding activity remains light. Some believe that because such coins are very scarce to extremely rare that the likelihood of snagging one through a visible Bid is unlikely. As noted before, the very fact of the existence of a good faith Bid offers at least one way to have deals show up. Though there are no plus signs this week, the number of offers to buy Barber coinage - Mint State, Proof and Circ - has not eased in the slightest.

GOLD: The material listed in the U.S. Gold Type chart below suffers only slightly as Spot hits a low dating back to late April, now at $1,158. A number of dealers have reported an increase in transactions both buying and selling in an effort by clients to beat the upcoming 1099 reporting requirements of transactions over $600. Gold in smaller sizes remains in heated demand.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen raw coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Bids which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay considerably above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" [illegible]. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark - these bring lower prices, "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mer[illegible]ury series, "gem, full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices - particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls dull or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem full strike Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN

BOSTON BOUT TO BEGIN
BOURSE & AUCTIONS HIGHLY ANTICIPATED

The Market in Depth

Boston beckons as the itinerary for most is jam packed with activities and probably no one listed a tea party. Two pre-shows and impromptu bourses will greet participants on arrival. Many dealers will work in the three major auctions so cash flow strategy must meet the requirements of an affair that will take place over a two week period. The temptation to offer full fare inventory might seem like a good idea at first but much of the good stuff will be held back for retail sales at the ANA convention. Barber coinage - Mint State, Proof and Circulated remains in heightened demand. First there was a trickle of interest, then a stream, now a torrent and providing a major focus for dealers and collectors. On board the Circ deck, problem-free, original coins with even wear are the ticket. Circulated examples with that cameo effect are receiving slight premiums. Gold Dollars, Quarter Eagles and Half Eagles are also extremely active of late providing safe harbor during some of the most uncertain times in U.S. history. Small Gold is also getting a boost from the revised 1099 filing requirements bundled in the health care bill slated for 2012. The first motion to repeal the new law from a couple Republican Senators failed to pass.

PCGS recently announced some major changes to its grading service by now re-viewing all qualified coins for the + grade. Originally submissions eligible for the + grade were part of a full package service branded as Secure Plus. Like NGC, PCGS is offering + designations for all coins meeting their criteria submitted in the Regular, Express and Walk through service levels at no extra cost. It will be interesting to see how long it will take for a noticeable increase in the amount of slabs with + grades made available on the bourse and at auction.

Seminars, presentations, and displays provide a major anchor at every ANA show. This summer's exhibits include: a complete 1874 Bickford Pattern set; two extremely rare Double Eagles - an 1861 Paquet Reverse and a 1921 Proof Roman Finish Saint-Gaudens and a collection of Proof Half Cents with full Mint Red bloom. Some anticipated activities surrounding the convention are: a visit to the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, a dinner cruise and a Red Sox game. Stack's will offer several important rarities in their auction as will Bowers, including duplicates from the Cardinal Collection. The Cardinal Collection, of course, purchased the SP66 1794 Flowing Hair Dollar for $7.85 million earlier this year. Heritage will place the #1 all time finest Mercury Dime Registry Set up for sale at the official ANA auction. A preview of a few additional highlights from the sale are provided herein.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: This series is quiet this week. The suite of higher Bids for semi-key dates like the '20S and '24S in 64FB remain in force. Healthy auction results continue to roll in confirming Bid levels for many of the vaunted key dates. Now, if a nice contingent of + coins entered the market Mercs might see a return of popularity.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Bids for Gem key dates are present, but buyers are fussy. Ten Walkers have topped $10,000 at auction in the past six months. The most paid was the $29,900 for a CAC approved, 1921S graded NGC MS63.

DOLLARS: Pre '21 Morgan Dollars in AU condition have stretched to $20.50 per coin with several dealers in need of material. Additional increases have been recorded for all grades from VG through XF. Peace Dollars follow the Morgans with common dates moving higher in all Circulated grade columns.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: The frenzied activity for Proof Sets calms this week perhaps the result of market players preparing for the ANA. State Quarter Sets, both Silver and Clad are lower for many of the issues. These State Quarter sets may continue to drop as inventories are chock full while many collectors have moved on. The 4-piece Lincoln Proof Set with box and certificate is still needed at $15 Bid. Similarly, the Chronicle Set is supported this week at $145 having risen to this level a week ago. Mint Sets show a pair of up ticks including the 1997 Set now targeted at $9.50. Mint Sets from 1959 to the present reflect support at or near Bid without exception.

COMMEMORATIVES: An under Bidder captured Gem examples of the Lincoln, Stone Mountain and New Rochelle issues, all three PCGS certified, all reported as sight-seen transactions. Gold Commems present a strong Bidding front, which has been the situation for some time now. A 1916 McKinley snuck through, offered for sale at a level that squeezes the Bid/Ask range pretty tight. A dealer is paying Bid to acquire an 11-coin set in grades AU50-MS60. Contemporary Commems are active with select 2008 Gold Spouses seeing strong Bids from a number of dealers. Dealers are now paying $11,000 for PR70 1995W American Silver Eagles. NGC examples were offered wholesale in the $14,000 range earlier this year.

TYPE: Raising the Bid paddle higher prior to the ANA is unorthodox, but the novelty may prove old wisdom wrong. Seated Dimes with Legend, Barber Dimes, Seated Quarters with Motto, Barber Quarters, and Barber Halves - all move up, some as much as 5 percent from last week. Proof Type is a significantly improved market segment with supporting Bids present for nearly all designs, which covers a wide range from Small Cents through Trade Dollars.

GOLD: Double Eagles might surprise in that Bid falters in a number of grades even though Gold Spot is some $25 higher than our last report. In addition to sufficient supplies, this segment may be feeling the affect of increased demand for smaller denominations. High Relief $20 Saints continue to have multiple buyers at current levels. Proof American Gold Eagles took a beating this week, now at $1,750 per ounce, some $200 lower on fears of the US Mint resuming production for 2010.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen raw coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Bids which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction, you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

Single copy price $4.00 Vol. XLVIII No. 33 August 13, 2010 . . .a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

BOSTON ANA UNDERWAY
$1.2 MIL FOR DUPLICATE DOLLAR

The Market in Depth

One dealer referred to it as an "odyssey", definitions for which inelude: (1) a long, adventurous trip; and (2) an intellectual and spiritual quest. Undoubtedly, it is to the former definition that this dealer is referring, specifically a long, adventurous numismatic trip culminating with this year's 2010 ANA World's Fair of Money. The latter definition, however, may not be very far off the mark. A true-to-life *cOin*Dysseus' numismatic wanderings may have started at the Castle pre show or the Bay State show, both of which enjoyed decent crowds and brisk buying and selling on wholesale and retail levels. Collectors discussed purchases, kicked tires and many generally held back, awaiting the main event. One could almost detect a palpable excitement emanating from these collectors and the realization that the main course was still some time away. The first of three major auctions in the Boston area took place Saturday Aug 7, this one under the auspices of Bowers and Merena Galleries. Seven-figure coins never cease to amaze. From the much touted Cardinal Collection came a 1794 Flowing Hair Dollar graded NGC MS64 that realized over $1.2 million. This became a duplicate piece when the finest known example graded SP66 by PCGS was, purchased for $7.85 million in May. Total prices realized for the B&M sale reached $9.2 million. Stack's hosted a sale on Sunday Aug 8, which got underway less than 24 hours from the conclusion of the B&M affair. This one-day, two-session sale, boasted 922 lots sold and realized $4.2 million. Normally, such a Sunday night would conclude all participants' wanderings - two shows, two major auctions, impromptu bourses. *cOin*Dysseus, however, has perhaps just enough time to tackle another numismatic task of mythical proportions – an accounting of business that has occurred since arriving in Boston, an honest appraisal of inventory needs, cash flow realities, and then some rest, the odyssey is barely half over. PNG Day was held on Monday Aug 9 with a rather small bourse, but don't lose sight of the fact that it is populated by the best-of-the best, with non members requiring an invitation for admittance. Dealer set-up for the big show took place the following day with plenty of last minute deals taking place. Richard Nachbar took in a last minute consignment, adding another 13 lots to his sealed Bid sale set to conclude on Friday the 13th. Eleven of the new lots are housed in PCGS old green holders, including a Continental Dollar and three Bechtler Gold pieces. Heritage is the host auctioneer of the show with a multi-day sale beginning on Aug 11.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: BU War Nickel Rolls, '43D and '44D, are targeted at Bid, $140 and $550, respectively. Fresh material, like any other area of the market, finds a home very quickly. A 20 roll deal of Franklins, spread across 1952 to 1961, "off the market for 30+ years" sold over the wire in a heartbeat.

MERCURY DIMES: Winged Liberty takes flight in two columns, MS63 and MS64, for three issues, 1919, 1921, and 1921D, the latter two issues, of eourse, are the keys to the series in the grades mentioned apart only from the '16D and the two over-dates. Uncirculated short-scts are available for a bit less than current levels.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: A $75K reward is offered to anyone who can locate a 1942S in an MS67 holder. The 1945D rests alone as the Type coin in sight-seen land at $95 Bid. A handful of other eommon dates have declined and are making their way towards the Type designation as well.

DOLLARS: First year of issue Morgans are eagerly sought in the XF/AU grade range with at least one dealer willing to take up to 200 at $21 per for XF examples of either '78 7TF issues or the '78S and $26 at the AU50 level. High grade Peace Dollars are needed, specifically mentioned 1921, '22, '23, and '25 in PCGS MS67 and 1922S, '23S, '27, '27S, 27D, '35, and '35S in PCGS MS66. They must be blast white, with no haze to get all the money.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Sellers dominate both charts, and with many of the big Bidders at the ANA, this is perhaps not a surprise. The result is a fair amount of downward pressure. When buyers return home, however, any unfilled inventory needs will undoubtedly be met with Bids. All-in-all nothing unusual this time of year.

COMMEMERATIVES: This week is a flurry of activity, a hodgepodge of advances and retreats with MS63-64 being hit hardest while MS65-66 strengthens. '35S San Diego, '36 Columbia, and '46 Iowa all take a subtle slide from Very Choice down across-the-board. Gold remains robust from Choice through Gem with the $2½ Sesqui also needed in lower grades.

TYPE: Though the troops are in Boston, Bidding support does not languish in the least for Circulated or Mint State Type, especially in the neighborhood from Small Cents through Nickels. Flying Eagle Cents are targeted at or near Bid from XF thru MS65; 3¢ Nickels and 3¢ Silvers are similarly targeted in MS63 to MS65. Quarters and Halves garner solid support at or near Bid from Liberty Seated through Barber listings, including Standing Liberty Quarters. Proof Type also provides consistent Bid support for most of the material covered, in addition to yielding a couple of advances. Liberty Nickels with Cents in PR64 and Barber Halves in PR63 are higher.

GOLD: Gold Spot and generic Gold Type continue to confound. Spot looks to stabilizc around $1,200, though the chart is dominated from top to bottom with downside tweaks. $10 Eagles struck from 1838 thru the 1870s are hot. Coins certified XF40 to AU58 routinely bring prices at public auction well in advance of Bid, sometimes multiples, as collectors have diseovered an area where rarity relative to price makes for a bargain. Proof Gold is another area where demand is visibly increasing.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Bids which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE. The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium over Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" [illegible]. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark. These bring lower prices. "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury [illegible] bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices (particularly the pre-1941 issues). Washington rolls [illegible] "put together" bring lower prices. [illegible] rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

Greatest Gold Mine of Coin Data - Yours FREE!

CAC's POP Report puts all the data you need at your fingertips

CAC-stickered coins give you confidence. That's because we verify previously graded coins and award our green sticker only to those that are at minimum "solid" within their grade. Data for each of the stickered-coins is maintained in an elaborate online database, where you can easily verify any CAC coin.

Now, all of the data is compiled in CAC's Population Report – an absolute "must have" if you are active in today's rare coin market. Novices and advanced collectors alike can now access up-to-date, comprehensive data on all CAC-stickered coins, free of charge, by visiting our website at www.caccoin.com.

It's easy to identify coins that are solid for the grade - just look for the CAC verification sticker. And now there's an easy way to access a gold mine of CAC coin data, the FREE CAC POP report.

Sight-Seen wholesale prices for accurately graded U.S. Coins – Certified or Raw

Single copy price $4.00 Vol. XLVIII No. 34 August 20, 2010 . . .a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

BOSTON BEATS LA, BOSTON BEATS LA
SIX FIGURES FOR A COMMON WALKER

The Market in Depth

Wow, nearly $50 million in rare coins were sold at auction over a ten day period in Boston. Heritage ended up selling a total of $34.1 million once their regular sales were combined with their $22.4 million dollar platinum night. Bringing together Bowers & Merena at $9.3 million, Stacks with $4.2 million, and Richard Nachbar's $970K for a grand total of $48.6 million. A 1944 Walker created good 'ol fashioned hobby buzz selling for $109,250 on Aug 11. This PCGS wonder coin resides in an MS68 holder, and of the five pop 1 Walker issues in MS68 at PCGS, this is the only coin to record an auction appearance tracing back 10 years. Having enjoyed its 15 minutes of fame, the '44 will now perhaps retire though not before official placement in a Registry Set. Additional highlights from the Heritage sales are included herein. This year's ANA received ratings that were very favorable from most, unlike last year's City of Angels venue that was characterized very negatively by some exhibitors. One particular sentiment pervading numerous dealer reports was how easy it was to sell coins, and not nearly so easy to buy. Some even reported having their best ANA ever with comparisons made to the hot market of 2008.

PCGS has filed another complaint and an amendment Aug 10 in California targeting alleged coin doctors. The most recent filings dropped one named defendant and further enjoined the remaining defendants. PCGS has also announced that beginning this fall, all Secure Plus submissions will be tested for organic substances with the implementation of their Coin Sniffer technology. Bondo, putty, caulk, wax, lacquer, paint, ink, glue, citric acid, eggs, fertilizer and nose grease are all known to have be added to the surface of a coin to hide imperfections and will now be identified. In early 2011 Secure Plus submissions will also be analyzed for inorganic materials on the coins surfaces at the atomic level. Foreign metals as well as metal fatigue due to high heat from a blow torch or laser can be detected.

Two years into the Great Recession finds the hobby recovering nicely. Extensive business goings on in Boston, prior to and including the ANA show, had some observers concerned that it would be too much. Not so is the conclusion from the overall prices realized and great deal of enthusiasm displayed for the duration of the convention and surrounding activities.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: Winged Liberty takes flight, quality is the essence to ensure getting off the ground... a 1916D PCGS CAC MS67FB realized $195,500, twice as much as the NGC example realized at auction one year ago. Other coins from the former #1 Registry Set read from the same script, one thing is certain — great coins bring all the money, then some, and some more.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Walkers continue to find healthy demand at and near Bid in MS63-MS64 with the war-time years especially strong. Gems enjoy steady on-going demand for the earlier dates. Overall, compared with last week's slide, Walkers stay the course in the higher grades. Stunning and memorable auction result: $109K for a 1944 graded PCGS MS68 will add to this series' already abundant luster.

DOLLARS: Common date Circs remain under intense pressure as five or more dealers are still looking to acquire a large number of coins at current levels. Generics in Mint State are steady with Bids remaining constant for now. A handful of declines adhering to four and five figure material has been recorded with a key date, the 1893S falling in AU50 from multiple transactions confirming the movement. The single bright spot within Peace Dollars is the 1934, advancing in VG, F, VF and XF.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Dispensing with less good news first, State Quarter Proof Sets continue to decline. Several of the Silver 5-piece sets are routinely offered for not much more than melt, with no real buyers seen. A few increases are seen for select Prestige and Premier Silver Proof Sets. Mint Sets are absent of changes in this report yet multiple buyers are available for every Set listed from 1959 to date at Bid or a tad less.

COMMEMERATIVES: MS65 and MS66 Classic Silver listings sail the brave tide of Boston's rugged numismatic harbor unscathed. Only one lone descent, that being the Lafayette Dollar in Choice. A Hawaiian graded NGC MS65+ sold at auction for $5,750 or 15% over MS65 Bid. Gold Commemoratives has a following of buyers looking for every regular issue in all grades from MS63 through MS66 at published levels. Contemporary Gold Commems are higher in direct response to the $40 move in Spot Gold since this market segment was last reported.

TYPE: Mint State Type was hot in Boston and is continuing to bring on the heat. Barbers were on fire throughout the bourse and demand has yet to be satisfied. All three denominations have made substantial moves since April of this year by way of higher Bids. Another round of increases has been recorded with select Seated Dimes, Quarters and Twenty Cent pieces joining in on the action in grades MS63-MS65. Proof Type remains solid and problem-free examples that are unquestionably all there for the grade will often bring a nice premium when sold.

GOLD: Gold Spot has once again hit the $1,225 level and has closed there upon two successive trading days. Gold Type is generally not reacting in tandem, even as Gold nears its all time world record high of $1,257 on June 18, 2010 most issues are down. Gem $20 Saints are one of only a few notable exceptions now Bid $1,920. Looking forward to the imminent presence of + graded Gems, a $190 bump now separates the MS65 and MS65+ Bid levels for no motto examples.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen raw coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Bids which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium over Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction, you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

Who says CAC coins bring a premium?

It makes perfect sense that CAC stickered coins would trade at a premium. That is because CAC verifies previously graded coins and awards our green sticker only to those coins which meet our stringent standards for quality within their grade. After all, quality is what determines value. A CAC sticker means you can have confidence in the value of a coin.

So if you are wondering, "Do CAC coins really bring a premium?" Just listen to what the press and America's top auction companies are saying!

FOX BUSINESS NETWORK

"CAC has come along at just the right time with a seal of approval to authenticate the best of breed coins."

JIM KINGSLAND,
EDITOR

COIN VALUES, AUGUST 2008

"At recent coin shows, dealers were quoting premiums that ranged from 5 to 15 percent higher than selling prices for non-CAC approved coins. Scarce coins, and those that have spectacular eye-appeal, certified by CAC, are bringing 20 to 25 percent more than non-CAC approved coins."

MARK FERGUSON

THE COIN DEALER NEWSLETTER

"Another important issue in the current market is the solid consensus that CAC stickered coins are on an ever-growing number of dealer radar screens. Driving this relatively new, intense focus is the undeniable fact that collectors are acutely aware of the difference in value that often exists between a CAC versus a non-CAC coin. From a bottom line perspective, this situation can't be ignored, regardless of one's personal opinion of the little green bean."

AUGUST 14, 2009

IRA AND LARRY GOLDBERG AUCTIONEERS

"It is very simple, CAC coins bring premiums!"

LARRY GOLDBERG

STACK'S

"Many of our clients here at Stack's are very enthusiastic about the Certified Acceptance Corporation review of PCGS and NGC coins and your confirmation of quality beyond the stated grading number. In fact, we have had so much demand for CAC labeled coins that we recently modified our website search engine to facilitate bidders finding CAC coins in our upcoming auctions. I congratulate you on your well-deserved success and the great contribution CAC is making to numismatics."

Q. DAVID BOWERS,
CHAIRMAN

BOWERS AND MERENA AUCTIONS

"CAC coins continue to bring strong prices in our auctions. More and more collectors are asking for the "green bean"."

STEVE DEEDS,
PRESIDENT

HERITAGE AUCTION GALLERIES

"CAC coins tend to attract more bidders, and almost always realize premium prices in our auctions."

TODD IMHOF,
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

DLRC AUCTIONS

"As an Internet-based coin auction company, we have seen a distinct advantage to CAC-approved coins over their non-stickered counterparts. I think that the sticker is especially helpful in giving bidders added security that they are going to get a high quality coin for the grade. Greater confidence equal more bids, plain and simple."

PRESIDENT

Sight-Seen wholesale prices for accurately graded U.S. Coins – Certified or Raw

Single copy price $4.00 Vol. XLVIII No. 35 August 27, 2010 . . .a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

TAKING FIVE AFTER BOSTON
PREMIUM QUALITY ALWAYS IN DEMAND

The Market in Depth

Many dealers are taking a much needed breather following the highly successful Boston ANA, pre shows and auctions. This respite prepares them for the next wave of coin related activities that usually kicks into high-gear as the kids return to school. Most collectors and dealers alike believe that the overall market remains on solid ground, especially when one considers the sheer volume of material (some $50 million) that sold at the Boston public actions in less than two weeks.

With auction invoices due soon a reorganization of inventory is in order for many dealers. This includes submitting newly acquired coins to the third party grading services and CAC with the goal of receiving the + grade and or green sticker. Coins deemed as being of premium quality (PQ) for the grade are becoming much easier to trade, even at increasingly higher numbers in select cases. Some collectors and dealers have experienced a bit of déjà vu and are comparing the split grades to 1986 when third party grading initially began. At first a premium was paid for the novelty aspect of the slab over a coin in a flip, similar to the + grades now. Today buyers are saying "If you want PQ money, offer coins with a + or CAC designation in place." Yes, problem-free coins that have a little something extra to offer, like strike, luster, and color have always received a premium. Now that these coins have been identified as just missing the next grade, they are able to trade among the non-specialists and even trade sight-unseen with confidence. Having encapsulated material downgraded to the split level may eventually become more popular if the coin's value is not substantially decreased and the salability increases. The NGC MS64 1794 Flowing Hair Dollar that recently sold for $1.2 million in a B&M sale held Aug 7, and now resides in a PCGS MS63+ holder would be one such example.

Reports of an increase in the public selling their bullion in mom and pop shops across the country are still coming in, with many clients commenting on the new 1099 reporting requirements coming in 2012. The ANA is urging all of its members to contact Congress and have them fight to repeal the part of the health care reform act that requires reporting all goods and services purchased in excess of $600 and has posted sample letters from dealers and collectors on their web site. This information is also available on ICTA's web site. Those without a computer should contact their local representative or senator, or call the US Capitol at 202-224-3121.

This is one of those few times a year when extra Greysheets were not requested for at least one coin show across the country. The action will soon pick-up, beginning with the Illinois Numismatic Association's fall show along with the PCGS Vegas event on Sept 9. Bakersfield CA, Orlando FL and Richmond VA host shows on Sept 9, Sept 10 and Sept 17 before the Long Beach Expo and Heritage sale begins Sept 23. Ira and Larry Goldberg will conduct a pre-Long Beach sale on Sept 19 in Beverly Hills. Large Cent errors from the Dan Holmes collection and selections from the Davy collection of Half Cent errors will be offered. The sale will continue the following day with Gold and Paper Money on the block.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Most Uncirculated Kennedy Half Dollar rolls are needed at Bid with dealers paying a minimum of $12 for any date and mint mark. All late date Franklins from 1954 are wanted at current levels. State Quarters are mixed with a pair of advances and declines, and remain soft overall.

MERCURY DIMES: The teens and twenties are getting popular both with and without Full Bands. Plus marks enter into play as dealers seek to acquire many earlier white or near white dates through 1930S in grades Choice, Very Choice and Gem.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: No minus signs here this week. Early issues are mostly quiet with sparse demand focused on those grading MS65. Then, activity explodes from the mid 30's onwards as Choice and Very Choice examples command robust support near Bid levels. We even see a trio pick up steam out of San Francisco.

DOLLARS: Generic Morgan Dollars remain strong in grades MS60 through MS65 as they have been for quite some time now. Common Circs are solid in all flavors (Peace, Pre-21 and '21) with buyers continuing to outnumber sellers by a wide margin. A handful of slightly better dates in various condition have declined, primarily in response to lower prices realized at recent retail auctions.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Prestige Sets reign supreme as Bid remains supported for all dates save the 1990 no'S'. State Quarter Proof Sets see a fairly stable market this week with just one decline and many Silver Sets are now holding their own at Bid. Mint Sets enjoy a healthy market at near Bid levels for all dates past 1958. Native American Dollars with missing date and mint mark have been found in the Denver panel from 2010 Mint Sets.

COMMEMORATIVES: Stark demand remains at or near Bid in the higher grades although AU50-MS63 is not without activity. Only a couple stragglers as the '35 Spanish Trail trails behind a bit in Very Choice and the Battle of Antietam falls in MS66. Both Missouri Centennials enjoy solid support in all Mint State grades as demand expands from the coins' MS63-MS65 comfort zone. Classic Gold Commemoratives remain strong with a small decline recorded for MS66 McKinley Dollars, resulting from the sale of a PCGS example with the + and CAC endorsement.

TYPE: The Proof Type segment is buzzing all over the place with visible buyers at or near Bid for almost every coin listed. The award for strongest support here goes to the Liberty Seated Dollar with Motto. Mint State Type is having a wild time beginning with Liberty Seated Half Dimes with Legend through Barber Half Dollars, resulting in a dozen advances.

GOLD: Even though Gold Spot is still moving north the majority of Mint State Gold Type is headed in the opposite direction. For the most part, common date Double Eagles are acting in unison with Spot as is usually the case. Type 3 $20 Libs are off a bit in the higher grades of MS64 and MS65. Non '09D $5 Indians are needed in MS63 and MS64 at $1,530 and $2,725 respectively. Premiums paid for Unc American Gold Eagles in most sizes are dwindling to some extant with sufficient supplies readily available.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen raw coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Bids which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer to Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium over Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark - these bring lower prices, "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices - particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls - dull or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem full strike Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

To a Coin Collector, Confidence is Priceless

Everyone wants to be confident about the quality of a coin. When it's a CAC-verified coin, you can trade with confidence.

Whether you're a novice or advanced collector, you know that quality is what determines the value of a rare coin. The problem is, within any certified coin grade, not all coins are "solid" quality coins. Now there's an easy way to identify coins that are solid for the grade - just look for the CAC verification sticker.

CAC verifies previously graded coins and awards our green sticker only to those coins which meet our high standards for quality within their grade. What's more, CAC is a powerful market maker for CAC verified coins. In fact, CAC has recently purchased over $100,000,000 worth of CAC verified coins.

Want confidence in the value of a coin? Look for the CAC sticker.

Sight-Seen wholesale prices for accurately graded U.S. Coins – Certified or Raw

Single copy price $4.00 Vol. XLVIII No. 36 September 3, 2010 . . .a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

PRICING PREMIUM QUALITY COINS
PRECIOUS METALS MOVE HIGHER

The Market in Depth

While premium quality coins in NGC or PCGS + holders, or those that have been stickered by CAC, are bringing premium prices, many coins that are of lesser quality continue to lose ground. Much of this lower quality material is going unsold and travels from show to show in hopes of finding a new home. This is an evolving trend in the marketplace. Dealer buy prices for + graded coins are still being formulated with only a small number of Bids visible for select issues. This is partly due to the fact that only a small percentage of + graded material currently exists. With a 2½ year head start, CAC pricing is more established, especially for Type Gold, $20 Saints and Dollars.

Questions, therefore, arise in the marketplace in a similar way to how they did when slabbing first began in 1986. Owners want to know: Will coins that have not been graded with a + designation or verified by CAC eventually be suspect like raw coins are now perceived? Will coins need to have a + grade and a CAC sticker, or just one or the other to be easily salable? These are common concerns and nobody knows the answers, not even the grading services. It's still too early to get a read on how it will all shake out. The market will tell us over time. When considering a new purchase, astute buyers are asking if the coin was seen by CAC and when it was graded to determine if the + grade was declined.

One major dealer of generic Gold recently ran a sell list of about 150 mid to higher grade Mint State Quarter Eagles through Double Eagles. All were CAC stickered and about half of them graded by PCGS and the other half by NGC. About 15 percent also had the + grade, yet were priced exactly the same as the non + coin with the same numerical grade. This example reflects Mint State generic Gold only, but it shows what one large dealer thinks of the latest evolution in coin grading and pricing. This is particularly important because Gold continues to attract the public's attention. Coin dealers are the prime beneficiaries of heightened demand as Gold creeps back toward its all-time record high. Only $8 separates today's Gold Spot level with the historic high of $1,257 set June 18 of this year. Silver is shining brightly and is once again over the $19 plateau at $19.40 per ounce.

A Michigan dealer returning from a show had his inventory stolen from his vehicle when parked in a rest plaza off the Ohio turnpike. About 100 ounces in Gold bullion were taken as well as his slabbed inventory including: an 1811 Half Cent graded PCGS AG3, two NGC PR65 Cameo Seated Quarters, one dated 1886 and the other 1872, and a PCGS Genuine 1773 Virginia Half Cent.

Goldberg's Sep 19 pre-Long Beach sale includes the Dan Holmes collection of Large Cent errors and the Davy collection of Half Cent errors. Among the Large Cent wreckage are numerous delaminated planchets and brockages. Included among the several dramatic examples in the Holmes collection is an 1835 with an obverse brockage and an 1848 with a reverse brockage. The Davy Half Cents exhibit a similar range of oddities. Many of the coins depicted in the "Whoops" chapter of Breen's Half Cent Encyclopedia are from this 40 year old collection.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: Lots of activity is in place this week as recent auction prices realized were further digested. This has resulted in a number of downward adjustments, though most are rather modest. Among the scarcer issues that are now lower, is a key date, the 1942/41D in MS64FB, which is now Bid at $8,500.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: As always, the short-set enjoys consistent demand at or near Bid in MS63 and MS64. Meanwhile, fresh interest blossoms near Bid for select issues in Choice, amongst the new recruits are perennial first year favorites that hail from the Philly and Denver Mints.

DOLLARS: A crowded field of buyers, a noticeably thin field of sellers equals Circ Morgan's moving up in Fine and VF. Availability in the lower Circulated grades masks the rarity of the 1892S, though it is leading Silver Medalist in the Choice to Very Choice columns, trailing only the '93S in price. This week, baby brother extends the gap over the third place competitor as it advances in MS63 and MS64 to $50K and $100K, respectively. Another "biggie", the '84S climbs to $30K in Choice. Circulated Peace Dollars dominate the action in this segment with at least two dealers looking to acquire the 1934 and 1935 issues in VG or better at increased Bid levels.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Both segments are generally healthy as material continues to trade within the Bid/Ask spread. Occasionally sellers offer "date runs" of Proof Sets, perhaps having acquired the material over-the-counter at a discount to Bid. In turn, they pass along a portion of the discount to the next buyer if they take the entire lot. 2004 Mint Sets are lower as sufficient quantities have been offered for less.

COMMEMORATIVES: All in all, a well supported market in the Mint State ranks with an active buyer present at or near Bid for just about every issue in MS65 and MS66. One Silver issue advances modestly this week as the '36 Antietam battles its way back after last week's poor auction outing. 1905 Lewis and Clark Gold Dollars are lower in MS65 and MS66 — the result of recent dealer-to-dealer wholesale transactions. Contemporary Gold Commems are higher from the recent increase in Gold Spot. It appears the Mint is currently no longer offering the Proof 2010 Platinum American Eagle with after-market buy offers as high as $2,050.

TYPE: Advances grace both the Mint State and Circ charts. Increases are exclusive to the Silver issues, a solid list that includes Twenty Cent Pieces in MS64, which now Bid $1,700. Full Head Standing Liberty Quarters climb higher in MS63 and MS64. Early Type is what's happening on the Circ side of town, namely Flowing Hair Halves, Bust Halves and Bust Dollars, the latter two displaying the Large Eagle on the reverse. The Proof Type market favors 19th century material at current Bid levels. This week, demand revolves around Dimes, Quarters and Half Dollars in the Liberty Seated and Barber design categories.

GOLD: Spot rose $10 over a three hour period this morning, just missing the $1,250 per ounce mark. Even better news perhaps, are the widespread advances hitting the Gold chart below. Generic Double Eagles are up across-the-board from VF through Gem with spreads tightening a bit as sellers are slow to adjust their Asking prices.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bid and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen raw coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer to Dealer transactions. You should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

The Market in Depth

After bouncing within a narrow trading range of about $17.50 to $18.50 for most of the summer, Silver broke out towards the psychological benchmark price of $20 per ounce during the past week, eclipsing its May 12 high close of $19.64. Silver has closed above $19 an ounce for seven consecutive trading days. During the same time, Gold continued its climb above $1,257 in intra-day trading, approaching its all-time record high of $1,265. However, Platinum prices remained unremarkable, trading between $1,515 and nearly $1,560 which is about two hundred dollars lower than May's high of $1,752. This is much less than Platinum's record high of $2,273 reached in March 2008. Palladium is trading just $45 shy of its historic peak set in April, now at $523 an ounce. Of course, the advances in the prices of Gold and Silver, the two primary precious metals followed by coin dealers and collectors, bode well for the overall coin market. Clients typically look to buy more precious metal products after prices move higher, which also brings out sellers. The boost in bullion prices causes many other products like Silver Proof Sets and common Morgan and Peace Dollars to trade at higher levels as well.

Higher Gold and Silver levels also bring added excitement and enthusiasm to the coin market. The electricity of these stepped up prices and trading activity in Gold and Silver is often felt at coin shows and in coin shops across the country. But it's not only Gold and Silver related coins that trade at a greater pace. Increased activity also carries over into other areas like Type coins and better dates. This is where the precious metal markets influence the coin market, mostly in a good way, sometimes adversely. Underlying all this is the fact that the general public is becoming more aware of the benefits of including some form of Gold in their investment portfolios. As this continues to happen it has a spill-over effect, often bringing potential collectors into the coin market. Some dealers are eagerly anticipating a growth in business because of this trend during the next several years. On the other hand, dealers are also perturbed by additional government reporting requirements that are scheduled to begin in 2012. This is now law! Dealers need to be vigilant and contact their Representatives and Senators to sign on to HR 5141 and S 3578 which are intended to repeal the reporting requirements which are already in place. This also affects dealers' customers, many of whom are unaware that this additional reporting is now law. Dealers are encouraged to have their clients make the same contacts as well.

Bonhams & Butterfields will be conducting a public sale of coins and banknotes on September 20 in Los Angeles. Included in the sale: a PCGS MS60 1879CC Capped Die Morgan Dollar; an 1818 $5 Capped Head, STATESOF variety graded NGC MS64; a PCGS MS62 and NGC MS64 1907 $10 Indian, both with Wire Edge; 1910 $10 Indian graded MS67 by NGC; PCGS MS63 1913S $10 Indian. Ira & Larry Goldberg will conduct a pre- Long Beach Expo sale September 19-22, also in Los Angeles. This will be followed by the Expo held in Long Beach September 23-25 and official auction by Heritage.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Silver Spot's precipitous rise forces the bullion influenced material to higher ground. Among the issues that are more esoteric, 1946S Quarter rolls are now targeted at $215, a $15 increase from our last report.

MERCURY DIMES: Bright white coins are what collectors are interested in acquiring, which leads dealers to seek out such coins. Unlike some other series, in particular the Morgan Dollars, bright white Dimes are available up to and including MS67FB for most dates. Acquisition hinges upon financial resources. Patience may still be required but is likely not a futile endeavor.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: A dealer remarked recently that they would never have believed there is so much demand for the short-set of Walkers had they not experienced it themselves. Two issues within have suffered a minor setback in MS65 making the short-set all the more attractive.

DOLLARS: Buyers are present at $30K, $50K, and $45K for the '84S, '92S, and the '95O in Choice Unc. A large contingent of well-heeled collectors makes it a daunting enterprise to locate examples that are worthy of "all the money", in some cases quite impractical if not downright impossible. High grade, key date Peace Dollars forge ahead. Examples of the '22D, '34, '34D and '35S increase by as much as 26 percent in MS67.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: The inaugural Proof Sets, 1936 to 1942 are targeted at Bid. Though these early Sets do not necessarily have to reside in original government packaging, it is necessary that the Set be of a demonstrable level of quality and originality to bring full Bid. Several Silver Sets have advanced this week along with the 1998S Silver Premier Set. Mint Sets are stable at current levels.

COMMEMORATIVES: Silver Commemoratives reflect strong support in MS65 and MS66, though there are a number of issues with tightening Bid/Ask spreads which often indicates the presence of examples in the market, which are going unsold. Activity for Gold Commems is strongest beginning at the Choice Unc plateau and remains solid through one notch below Superb Gem.

TYPE: A majority of Unc Type, whether struck in Copper, Nickel or Silver have visible buyers present, especially for those issues that Bid for under $10,000. Circulated Type is seeing a bit more activity than norm with a handful of select issues increasing in grades F-AU. Proof Type enjoys similar buyer support as Unc Type in PR63 through PR65 with a focus on Trade Dollars, Liberty Seated Dollars with Motto, and Barber Halves. Two issues report in with declines this week, the Flying Eagle Cent in PR63 and Three Cent Silvers TII in the same grade.

GOLD: Since the premiums on Gold coins change in response to a variety of conditions, world record Gold Spot prices do not automatically translate into world record prices for select Gold issues. Market-makers do appear to be forming a consensus however that Spot is showing some stability the past two weeks and Bid the generic Double Eagles up in VF thru MS65 along with $10 Liberty Heads and $10 Indians in a similar range of grades.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The [illegible] by [illegible] or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally they do not necessarily represent the level at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by levels which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE. The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than [illegible] prices and "gem" r[illegible] the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark - these bring lower prices. "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher price. In the Mer[illegible] "bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices, particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls "full or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem full strike Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

RECORD SETTING GOLD SPOT: $1,270
COLLECTORS DEMAND VALUE

The Market in Depth

The masses looked on in gawky amazement, as Gold meandered and hovered near world-record territory for the better part of two weeks, never closing below $1,246 nor breaking the then record high close of $1,257. One afternoon last week, Gold followed its muse above $1,260 intraday before pulling back. Gold Spot busted a decisive move on Sept. 14 and closed at an all-time high of $1,270. Silver Spot is firmly planted in $20 soil, closing at $20.40 per ounce. Silver is nowhere near its record high of $49 set in 1980, but is fast approaching its recent peak of $20.69 recorded in March of 2008

Bright spots continue to shine, in an otherwise mediocre market, according to some observers. Others are more upbeat than that. All the same, "real" collectors, numismatists with money, sensing that there is opportunity in the current environment are demanding value from the dealers they purchase from. Private treaty sales, those one-on-one encounters, allow collectors to adopt a tough negotiating stance. Expectations are that dealers should work on narrower margins than previously. Many dealers are cooperating, realizing a completed sale for a little less is more advantageous than no sale. At the opposite extreme, when a coin long off the market emerges at auction, and two or more "big dogs" gotta have it, there is little choice for the collector but to step up and pay the freight.

Mom and pop coin shops have been reporting one-way traffic lately, with the public selling more than they are buying. Some of this is due to Silver reaching levels not seen in years, but the dragging economy is also bringing folks in to raise cash. Sometimes it is scrap Gold offered to the proprietor, but other times it is someone's prized collection. This one way street mentality was evident at the Illinois Numismatic Association show held Sept. 9-11. With some 220 tables set up, collector attendance was considered moderate while dealer-to-dealer business was characterized as active. Dealers at the show expressed ongoing concerns about 1099 reporting requirements scheduled to begin in 2012. ICTA and others urge all those affected to contact local legislators and urge repeal. A new group of dealers has been formed to help fight the new reporting requirements. The Gold & Silver Political Action Committee (PAC) is accepting contributions and will hold a meeting explaining their intention at the Long Beach convention center following the Sept. 22 dealer set-up.

Upcoming numismatic events include two auctions in the LA area. Bonhams & Butterfields and Ira & Larrry Goldberg will begin their sales Sept. 20. Highlights from the Goldberg's pre-Long Beach catalog are included herein. Long Beach Expo starts Sept. 23 continuing through Sept. 25 with Heritage set to conduct the official sale.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: Demand for ordinary Mercs (without the FB qualifier) is very selective and just a few issues are garnering Bids, among them the '27D and '28D which are targeted in MS64 and MS65. Mercs with Fully Split Bands are much more active, in fact, this week advances cling to the '18S, '19D, '27D and '28D. MS64FB Bids are now $1,850, $5,250, $1,650 and $850 respectively.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Many key dates in Gem condition - '20D, '20S, '21, '21D, and '23S are desired at Bid but the usual rules apply - coins must be at least solid for the grade. Short Sets are needed in Choice and Very Choice, which seems to always be the case with these affordable issues.

DOLLARS: 1921 Morgans are sought in large quantity and the competition is fierce, thus pushing Bids for VG through VF to higher levels. High grade, key date Peace Dollars receive another round of attention, the '22S and '23S are up in MS66 and the prized 1935 — more readily available at this level than once thought — climbs in Superb Gem to $10,000. Bright white is important when it comes to Dollars, especially for the better dates. Just this week two Choice examples of the 1923D sold at retail auction, one going for $166 and the other $104. The $104 price was for an accurately graded example with a layer of heavy toning and the other, of course, bright white.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: From 1958 forward, Proof Sets and the corollaries like Prestige and Premier as well as regular Silver Set all enjoy a good deal of interest at or around current Bid with just one or two exceptions. State Quarter and Presidential Sets remain soft and continue their downward spiral. Mint Sets from 1959 onward are actively traded within the Bid/Ask spread.

COMMEMORATIVES: A dozen different designs notch advances in at least one grade, several climbing higher in multiple columns. The Grant Memorial with Star commands $6,000 for a "real" Gem. Perhaps in response to Silver Spot clearing the $20 per ounce hurdle, Washington-Carver Types bring $10 in XF and $12 in AU. Gold Commems rumble along with a ground swell of support and one advance to report this week, the 1903 La. Purchase/McKinley Gold $1 in MS66. Contemporary Gold Commems are slightly higher with premiums over melt actually reduced as a few major players announced that they are no longer buying and have pulled their Bids altogether.

TYPE: You know the collector is back in town when Mint State Type advancers include Flying Eagle Cents in MS63 and MS64, Liberty Seated Half Dimes and Dimes, both with Legend, Liberty Seated Quarters with Motto in those same two grades, and all three Barber denoms. Circ Type gets into the picture too with buyers upping the ante on Trade Dollars, which now fetch $175 in XF and $215 in AU. Twenty Cent pieces, what with Liberty's decidedly "Olive Oyl" like features, is always singled out by the emerging Type collector; perhaps that is the reason why dealers are Bidding the Type up in Proof 64, now at $4,200.

GOLD: Spot set a new record close of $1,270 per ounce yet select Type Gold is sprinkled with minus signs. Market makers anxiously await a sure sign indicating that the noble yellow metal is headed in the right direction before making any real bold moves. In the meantime the Type chart below is replete with mostly minor adjustments.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE. The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

RECORD GOLD & 30-YEAR HIGH SILVER
PRE-LONG BEACH AUCTIONS IN PROGRESS

The Market in Depth

What could be better for the rare coin market than a record Gold Spot price and a 30 year high for Silver? This is what the market has seen during the past week. Such a move typically stimulates both buying and selling of precious metal related products from the public and adds energy to coin shows, like Long Beach, which is taking place now. Where are the metal prices going from here? Obviously, no one knows, but there are several factors analysts are focusing on. These include the Gold to Silver ratio, buying or selling by central banks, world-wide debt obligations, investment consumption, industrial usage, exchange traded products, options expirations, future inflation and deflation scenarios, etc.

Proof American Gold Eagles have been extremely active and volatile for the past couple of years. The increased interest developed from individuals adding these coins to their IRAs coupled with the US Mint's decision not to produce any in 2009. Bids rose to $2,130 an ounce late last year and currently have a Bid/Ask spread of $1,600/$1,650. The Mint announced that they will begin selling 2010 Proof American Gold Eagles in all sizes including four-coin sets on October 7 at noon Eastern Time. Taking into account that a maximum of 39,000 sets will be sold implies a maximum mintage of 66,000 one-tenth ounce and 54,000 of the half-ounce size if a sell-out occurs. This is quite possible as no household order limits will be imposed. If Gold Spot continues to trade in the $1,250 to $1,299 range the 2010 one-ounce PGAE will be priced at $1,560. There has been no mention of a Proof American Silver Eagle for 2010. ANACS has recently encapsulated 2009 "Proofed" versions, made privately by re-striking 2009 Uncirculated American Silver Eagles. On another note, the U.S. Mint announced that it will make its core products, primarily Proof Sets and Mint Sets, available during January, 2011. This is the first time in about a decade that these products will be available this early in the year.

This week's coin show and auction activity will give us the best read on what is going on in the coin market since the August ANA convention. A pre-Long Beach sale by Bonhams & Butterfields is in the books. The 500-lot, one-session sale held on Sept. 20 realized $1.13 million. An 1889CC Morgan Dollar cataloged as Brilliant Uncirculated, conforming nicely to that old-school designation, notched top honors at the sale, climbing to $87,750 before the Bidding closed. A well represented assortment of $10 Indians were offered and featured a 1907 Wire Rim graded PCGS MS62 and a 1913S graded PCGS MS63, which realized $39,780 and $30,420 respectively. Ira and Larry Goldberg's sale is underway and a public auction by Heritage is set to begin Sept. 23 at the Long Beach convention center.

Another round of record Gold prices and 30-year highs in Silver prices are welcomed by dealers in a market that has been a bit sluggish since the last market peak in early 2008. Keep in mind that it's the new money coming into the coin market that is a stimulant. While some dealers should be doing well from sales of bullion and modern coin related products, we should recognize that these clients that are buying today are often the best customers for buying rare coins in the future. If money is circulating just among the dealers, the market is not expanding. We experienced some of this during the record-breaking year of 1980.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Select early Lincoln rolls are lower, as are a number of Clad Proof State Quarter rolls. Common Silver issues, both 40% and 90% are higher across-the-board in response to increased Bids for Silver of any kind. With Spot Silver pushing $21 an ounce, many BU and Proof Silver issues currently remain available for not much more than melt.

MERCURY DIMES: The chart reflects only one minus sign, the result of a 1931 MS65FB selling at a discount. A survey of retail transactions on less expensive fare (up to $250) reveals that many, if not most coins, are selling well above wholesale Bid. In any event, this segment of the market continues to be thinly traded.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Six Gems lose their way, five of which are members of the short-set. The 1937S is the only other issue recording a downward trek in the MS65 column. Second year of issue, 1917, falters in MS64 to $250. Support for Walkers remains strong, especially for key date Gems, boasting bright white original Mint bloom.

DOLLARS: Pressure continues to mount for common date Circulated Morgan Dollars (1878-1904), 1921 Morgans, as well as common date Peace Dollars. All three of these sections within the Dollar charts notching advances from VG to AU. Most slightly better and semi-key Dollars enjoy strong interest from the Choice Unc plateau through the MS66 grade.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Proof Sets issued from 1936 to 1942 are targeted at Bid while nearly everything else listed is desired at Bid or for slightly less. A handful of minus signs have been recorded for regular Clad Proof Sets that are currently abundant in the marketplace. Increased Bids latch onto the 1995S and 1997S Prestige Sets. Mint Sets from 1960 to 1964 advance in response to Spot.

COMMEMORATIVES: Examples of the 1937 Battle of Antietam trudge higher in MS66 to $975. Take note: PQ slabs often sell in retail auctions for less than wholesale Bid. Recent instances include the Missouri 2X4 graded MS64, 1925 Stone Mountain and Lexington-Concord in MS65, and Texas, Oregon and Carver Type in MS66. Classic Gold Commemoratives regain forward thrust with both Quarter Eagles exploring higher ground along the MS64 frontier.

TYPE: Higher Bids are being offered in an attempt to secure quality Mint State Type. Two Cent Pieces graded MS63R-MS64R, Barber and Seated Dimes with Legend in MS63 are needed. Circulated Type enjoys support at Bid or very close to Bid for a wide range of material including the 1859 Copper Nickel Cent, Capped Bust Half Dimes, Dimes, Quarters and Halves, as well as Liberty Seated coinage from the Half Dime to the Dollar, in grades VG to XF. Proof Type is easily one of the most vigorously sought-after segments of the entire market. Most issues have ready buyers for quality material in multiple grade columns.

GOLD: Another record close is in the books as Spot reaches $1,279. The impact (or lack of impact) to the U.S. Gold Type chart below is almost eerie. Premiums over melt are heading even lower as generic Double Eagles falter in AU50 to MS60. On the bright side, each denomination is trending upward for at least one design Type in MS63 and MS64.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen raw coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Buys which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

Who says CAC coins bring a premium?

It makes perfect sense that CAC stickered coins would trade at a premium. That is because CAC verifies previously graded coins and awards our green sticker only to those coins which meet our stringent standards for quality within their grade. After all, quality is what determines value. A CAC sticker means you can have confidence in the value of a coin.

So if you are wondering, "Do CAC coins really bring a premium?" Just listen to what the press and America's top auction companies are saying!

Fox Business Network

"CAC has come along at just the right time with a seal of approval to authenticate the best of breed coins."

Jim Kingsland,
Editor

Coin Values, August 2008

"At recent coin shows, dealers were quoting premiums that ranged from 5 to 15 percent higher than selling prices for non-CAC approved coins. Scarce coins, and those that have spectacular eye-appeal, certified by CAC, are bringing 20 to 25 percent more than non-CAC approved coins."

Mark Ferguson

The Coin Dealer Newsletter

"Another important issue in the current market is the solid consensus that CAC stickered coins are on an ever-growing number of dealer radar screens. Driving this relatively new, intense focus is the undeniable fact that collectors are acutely aware of the difference in value that often exists between a CAC versus a non-CAC coin. From a bottom line perspective, this situation can't be ignored, regardless of one's personal opinion of the little green bean."

August 14, 2009

Ira and Larry Goldberg Auctioneers

"It is very simple, CAC coins bring premiums!"

Larry Goldberg

Stack's

"Many of our clients here at Stack's are very enthusiastic about the Certified Acceptance Corporation review of PCGS and NGC coins and your confirmation of quality beyond the stated grading number. In fact, we have had so much demand for CAC labeled coins that we recently modified our website search engine to facilitate bidders finding CAC coins in our upcoming auctions. I congratulate you on your well-deserved success and the great contribution CAC is making to numismatics."

Q. David Bowers,
Chairman

Bowers and Merena Auctions

"CAC coins continue to bring strong prices in our auctions. More and more collectors are asking for the "green bean"."

Steve Deeds,
President

Heritage Auction Galleries

"CAC coins tend to attract more bidders, and almost always realize premium prices in our auctions."

Todd Imhof,
Executive Vice President

DLRC Auctions

"As an Internet-based coin auction company, we have seen a distinct advantage to CAC-approved coins over their non-stickered counterparts. I think that the sticker is especially helpful in giving bidders added security that they are going to get a high quality coin for the grade. Greater confidence equal more bids, plain and simple."

John Feigenbaum,
President

SILVER SPIKES TO $21.75

The Market in Depth

Several successively higher record prices for Gold were set this past week, trading over $1,309 intra-day, and a 30 year high for Silver that reached more than $21.75 per ounce. Dealers are optimistic that activity within their shops will steadily increase as the general public hears of Silver's return to highs not seen in over 3 decades. Record Gold prices have been reported with regularity via mass media for several years now, not so for Silver. Sales of bullion related items were strong at the Long Beach show last week, with Silver reportedly selling much better than Gold. Generic Gold was mostly soft while Type and Dollars did well. Proof Singles including Mercury Dimes and Walkers were actively sought on the bourse. With the Whitman Philadelphia show just around the corner, a few regulars elected to skip the Long Beach Expo and prepare for the east coast event and Stack's auction beginning September 30.

Ira and Larry Goldberg tallied $7 million in sales from their pre-Long Beach auction last week. The top lot, a 1795 Reeded Edge Large Cent, received a Bid of $280K for a final selling price of $322K including the buyer's fee. Regarding the sale, Ira Goldberg reported, "The fresh material did very well; we noted some weakness in expensive coins with high reserves. The Coppers went through the roof!" Over $13.4 million was sold in the Heritage Long Beach auction and the star of the sale was the recently discovered 1856O $20, graded NGC XF45+ that brought $345K. Only about 20 examples are known. Heritage President Greg Rohan said, "Collectors continued to respond enthusiastically to the best and rarest examples, as evidenced by the heated competition for the Bullock 1856O Double Eagle." A few of the many highlights from the sale are listed below. Legend Numismatics made news again by buying the unique 1943D Lincoln Cent in Copper for $1.7 million and subsequently placing it with a collector. The transaction involved three Lincoln Cents, including the finest graded 1944 Steel Cent, a PCGS MS64, and a PCGS MS65 white metal 1942 Cent – all purchased by Legend for $2,000,000. The anonymous seller was represented by Lincoln Cent specialist Andy Skrabalack of Angel Dee's Coins and Collectibles.

Stack's upcoming sale in Philadelphia, set for Sept. 30-Oct 2, includes an interesting array of CAC endorsed coins, mostly items that fall comfortably into that terrain called collector friendly. An 1831 and 1832 Capped Bust Half Dollars graded PCGS AU53 and PCGS XF45, respectively are among the CAC approved offerings. Two Morgan Dollars dated 1888S and graced with green beans are also included, both graded by PCGS, one MS66 and the other MS63. The Stack's sale will also offer an 1821 Capped Bust Quarter certified NGC MS67 and an 1892 $20 Liberty, a gorgeous coin grading PCGS PR66 Deep Cameo.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: This market segment remains quiet with little in the way of activity to report. A few buyers continue to be seen for a couple dozen dates in grades MS64FB-MS65FB, however the offers are much lower than reported here. On the bright side, no material is being dumped at a discount.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Three short-set Gems stride into the autumnal equinox on a higher plane, the '37S, '42D, and '46 are now Bid at $570, $250, and $110, respectively. Each of these issues that advanced this week are coming off a minus sign the week previously and remain available in the marketplace.

DOLLARS: Once upon a time, like less than a week ago, five 1885CC Dollars, each graded PCGS MS65 appeared as successive lots in public auction and realized, $991, $920, $949, and $920. Offering number five included a CAC sticker and beat a path to $1,501 before the under Bidder gave up. Four DMPLs lose a little charm, selling at less than money, include the 1882CC and the 1884CC. Ikes are responding to the elevated Silver Spot price, which at this moment is barreling over $21.75 an ounce.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Many Silver Proof Sets are being forced higher in reaction to the recent peak in Silver Spot. Most of these Sets remain available at or near melt and must be removed from their packaging if offered to the high buyer, i.e. the melting pot. Mint Sets continue to see vigorous Bid support for the single government issues dating from 1959 to the present.

COMMEMORATIVES: Activity for Circulated examples intensifies as a half dozen dealers are in need of several issues at and near Bid. Iowa, Albany, and Fort Vancouver are only a few of the many examples which break the silence in an otherwise quiet market. Don't discount those in Mint State condition just yet though, as many PDS Sets enjoy solid support in Gem. Gold Commems remain strong in grades MS63 through MS66.

TYPE: Mint State Barber coins in all denominations are still on the move to higher ground. At least one dealer will even pay a bit more than the Type Bids listed here if offered many different dates. Standing Liberty Quarters, Type II get in on the gig with higher Bids in grades MS64FH and MS65FH. Twenty Cent Pieces are entertaining stronger offers in Choice and Very Choice, the latter now at $1,725. Capped Bust Half Dimes in MS63 exhibit a new confidence level at $650. Is the blossoming Type collector back in the fold? It appears to be so, from week to week going back some months now, there are positive moves on nearly all Silver design Types from the 1850s forward. Proof Silver Type enjoys layers of support, sometimes four and five dealers deep, all paying within 5-10 percent or so of each other.. Some other segments of the market should have it so good!

GOLD: Premiums for generic Double Eagles continue to subside, especially for Circulated material. $20 Libs and Saints in grades VF to Choice AU are Bid in a range $1,355 to $1,405, losing some ground, even while Spot is closing in on $1,310 an ounce. The rest of the chart shows advancers dominating decliners. Within the MS63 grade, two of the three Gold Dollar Types, common Quarter Eagle, Half Eagles and Eagles are all climbing higher.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer to Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Bids which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer to Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

The Market in Depth

Precious metal prices continue to climb as Gold broke through the $1,300 barrier last week only to set a new record close today of $1,339. Silver has continued to travel along the same path, closing over $22 an ounce late last week to $22.71 now. Platinum has also advanced during this time, now trading at $1,700, which is still shy of the $1,747 reached in May of this year. That's far short of the $2,271 record price Platinum reached in early March, 2008. The other white metal, Palladium is also trading in record territory, near $575 an ounce, up 253% from early December, 2008. Palladium bullion coins may eventually be offered by the US Mint, the Mercury Dime design is currently being proposed. Asking prices for American Silver Eagles increased by fifty-cents this week in response to the US Mint increasing the premium paid by its authorized distributors some 33%. Proof Silver Eagles dated 2010 will be offered on Nov. 19 for $45.95 with a per household limit of 100 coins. This is about $8 less than dealers are currently paying for any Proof ASE in original government packaging. Proof American Gold Eagles dated 2010 will go on sale Oct. 7 and be available in all sizes including sets.

Stack's realized $9.7 million in a public sale as the official auctioneer of the Whitman Philadelphia Expo Sept. 30-Oct 2. Listed herein are some of the many highlights that sold in the auction. Public attendance at the show was considered light and dealers reported that wholesale activity was stronger than retail. A few west coast dealers did not attend the show because the Long Beach Expo was held the week prior. An increasing concern among dealers is that there are too many major shows held on the heels of each other. These shows actually started to wane when encapsulation started and affordable overnight mail service became readily available. Coin shows will likely never cease altogether as there will always be a need for collectors and dealers to interact with each other and buy/sell in the flesh.

The Scotsman auction will kick off next week on Oct. 15 in St. Charles, MO and is being held in conjunction with the Silver Dollar Expo that begins with dealer set-up on Oct. 13. Highlights include nice early Half Cents such as the 1794 graded MS61BN by NGC and a 1796 No Pole encapsulated by ANACS with a G6 grade. An NGC MS60 1795 Flowing Hair Half Dime; 1918/7S Standing Liberty Quarter with a PCGS grade of AU55; 1836 Capped Bust Half Dollar R. E. in NGC MS63 and an 1893O Morgan Dollar graded PCGS MS63 are offered within the Silver category. As for Gold: 1868 $3 Princess in PCGS MS63; an 1812 NGC 63 Liberty Half Eagle; a 1900S NGC MS64 Eagle and the crème de la crème, a 1904 PR65 Double Eagle in a PCGS old green holder.

This Week's Market

CENTS THRU HALVES: Select offers to sell Lincoln Cent rolls and a few pre-1950s rolls of Dimes and Quarters have resulted in minus signs. Rising Silver Spot prices may be pushing dealers to offer premium material at a minor discount in order to generate cash flow and stay liquid as more of the general public walks in looking to sell.

MERCURY DIMES: Circulated Mercs are receiving a much needed boost from higher Silver Spot levels. Gem and better examples with Fully Split Bands are not so lucky and continue to drift lower.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: First year of issue coins are always popular with collectors; nowhere is this more noticeable than in the case of the 1916 Walker. Nice examples remain a formidable challenge with most selling significantly in advance of Bid. 1916D, which is of comparable scarcity, tends to sell closer to published levels. Collectors are drawn to the superior characteristics of the Philly coins such as striking detail, luster and overall aesthetics

DOLLARS: San Francisco Morgan Dollars have "the look". Never mind that low grade Uncs are bag marked, scruffy, some might even say scratched. There is no denying the intensity of luster, the conspicuous striking detail, and the freshness that is rarely evident on Philadelphia and New Orleans coins from the same era. Higher Bids have been recorded for tbe '80S, '81S and '85S in MS60. Circ Dollar buyers are now explicitly targeting grades XF and AU, thereby pushing Bid higher in those two columns. Back to back appearances of the 1928 Peace Dollar in MS65, both examples CAC endorsed, both sold at a discount, results in a lower Bid.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Proof Sets from 1936 to 1942 and from the 1955 Flat pack to the present are targeted for acquisition at or near Bid, so too are Mint Sets from 1960 to the present. Advancing Silver Spot prices sometimes brings unscrupulous buyers into the shop; the type that waits patiently to engage a less experienced counter person and then endeavors to purchase all the 90% Sets which are still tagged at yesterday's prices.

COMMEMORATIVES: Interest focuses on coins grading MS65 and MS66, which is perhaps not surprising as the jump in price from MS64 to MS65 and MS65 to MS66 is often much more meaningful than in the lower Mint State grades. For example the 1936 Norfolk goes from $355 to $365 for grades MS60 through MS64 yet jumps to $465 in Gem. Gold Commems rediscover a certain amount of interest as Bids move higher for three Gold Dollars in grades MS64-MS66.

TYPE: Mint State and Circulated Type remain selectively strong, but decidedly strong for those design Types that are perceived by collectors as interesting, peculiar, obsolete or short lived; for example 3¢ Nickels, 3¢ Silvers, Seated Liberty Quarters No Drapery, and Half Cents. Proof Type continues to enjoy strong demand for anything struck in this format starting in the 1850s through the 1940s. Gobrecht Dollars – arguably one of the most interesting and enigmatic Types of all time - receives interest in PR60 through PR64 at current levels.

GOLD: With Spot tilting toward $1,340 an ounce, wave after wave of plus signs grace the charts in all denominations, spanning the grade range from VF20 to MS65. Type 1 $20 Libs are needed at higher levels in MS63-MS64 with a bit more being offered for those with gold foil insert, box and papers.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market, which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Bids which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE. The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction; you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark- these bring lower prices; "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem" full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls dull or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem full strike Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN

Who says CAC coins bring a premium?

It makes perfect sense that CAC stickered coins would trade at a premium. That is because CAC verifies previously graded coins and awards our green sticker only to those coins which meet our stringent standards for quality within their grade. After all, quality is what determines value. A CAC sticker means you can have confidence in the value of a coin.

So if you are wondering, "Do CAC coins really bring a premium?" Just listen to what the press and America's top auction companies are saying!

Fox Business Network

"CAC has come along at just the right time with a seal of approval to authenticate the best of breed coins."

Jim Kingsland,
Editor

Coin Values, August 2008

"At recent coin shows, dealers were quoting premiums that ranged from 5 to 15 percent higher than selling prices for non-CAC approved coins. Scarce coins, and those that have spectacular eye-appeal, certified by CAC, are bringing 20 to 25 percent more than non-CAC approved coins."

Mark Ferguson

The Coin Dealer Newsletter

"Another important issue in the current market is the solid consensus that CAC stickered coins are on an ever-growing number of dealer radar screens. Driving this relatively new, intense focus is the undeniable fact that collectors are acutely aware of the difference in value that often exists between a CAC versus a non-CAC coin. From a bottom line perspective, this situation can't be ignored, regardless of one's personal opinion of the little green bean."

August 14, 2009

Ira and Larry Goldberg Auctioneers

"It is very simple, CAC coins bring premiums!"

Larry Goldberg

Stack's

"Many of our clients here at Stack's are very enthusiastic about the Certified Acceptance Corporation review of PCGS and NGC coins and your confirmation of quality beyond the stated grading number. In fact, we have had so much demand for CAC labeled coins that we recently modified our website search engine to facilitate bidders finding CAC coins in our upcoming auctions. I congratulate you on your well-deserved success and the great contribution CAC is making to numismatics."

Q. David Bowers,
Chairman

Bowers and Merena Auctions

"CAC coins continue to bring strong prices in our auctions. More and more collectors are asking for the "green bean"."

Steve Deeds,
President

Heritage Auction Galleries

"CAC coins tend to attract more bidders, and almost always realize premium prices in our auctions."

Todd Imhof,
Executive Vice President

DLRC Auctions

"As an Internet-based coin auction company, we have seen a distinct advantage to CAC-approved coins over their non-stickered counterparts. I think that the sticker is especially helpful in giving bidders added security that they are going to get a high quality coin for the grade. Greater confidence equal more bids, plain and simple."

John Feigenbaum,
President

Single copy price $4.00 Vol. XLVIII No. 42 October 15, 2010 . . .a Friday morning report on the Coin Market

GOLD SPOT COURTING MAIN STREET
CIRC DOLLARS IN DEMAND

The Market in Depth

Excitement over Gold continues on Main Street. Rising higher, first breaking through $1,300 just two weeks ago, then clearing $1,350 one week later in intraday trading, and closing at $1,353.30 - an all-time high recorded on October 11. Market observers and analysts are quick to tell us why Gold is doing what it is doing. Global economic conditions, currency manipulation by governments, and trade imbalances are often cited as reasons behind Gold's gyrations. What is for sure is that Gold is well known on Main Street. Public awareness of the value of Gold has crept into places that no one dreamed of ten years ago. From the U.S. Mint's mission to foster coin collecting to IRAs filled with Gold coins, Gold is mainstream. News outlets can't get enough of these stories to satisfy viewer demand. From Main Street to the coin shops, ordinary people are walking-in and wanting to purchase Gold coins for their own personal safe haven of wealth. Those feeling the economic pinch are showing up wanting to sell their jewelry and other precious metal scrap. Educating the masses in these over-the-counter transactions is where it all begins and everyone is primed.

Silver Spot has shadowed Gold's upward movements of late, remaining over $22 an ounce for nearly a week, closing at $23.33 today. It has been following in Gold's footsteps as a financial metal, but its industrial aspects and supply/demand ratio are also causing many buyers to consider the prospects of Silver versus Gold. While Silver has a long way to go to reach the 1980 highs of $50 per ounce, its recent rise has moved the white metal higher than its 1979 market average of $21.73 and its 1980 average of $16.39. This surge in Silver Spot has stimulated the pubic to bring flatware, bars, rounds and other items into local coin shops to sell. Circulated Morgan and Peace Dollars are beginning to see a significant increase in demand. Market makers have shown extraordinary forbearance in order not to create a frenzy, though quantities are badly needed and Bids are moving higher. Platinum has been hovering in the high $1,600s, briefly closed above $1,700 before falling below to $1,691.

The Scotsman Auction Company is conducting The Collectors' Auction 2010 at the Silver Dollar & Rare Coin Expo in Saint Charles, MO on October 15. Scotsman reports that high dollar items, generally high grade Type coins priced above $30,000 are selling well. The company also reports that bread-and-butter collector coins in the $1,000 to $3,000 range are doing well. Coinfest, a cool regional style show with a national draw is scheduled to begin Thursday October 28 in Stamford, CT. The good news is, Heritage will hold a public auction in association with the show. We have listed a few of the many highlights below. The bad news is, CAC will not be on site stickering slabs as they are currently processing a record level number of submissions. Baltimore is on deck with a Bowers & Merena sale slated for Nov 4-6 as host auctioneer of the Whitman show.

This Week's Market

MERCURY DIMES: A quad of better dates - the '18S, '19D, '27D and '28D - register higher Bids in MS64FB. Aside from a single decline recorded for the 1918 in MS65, this series is quiet, some might say neglected.

WALKING LIBERTY HALVES: Walkers remain strong overall with a solid base of collectors building sets. While it may be futile to go in search of a specific coin for a customer, everything we review confirms that it makes sense to pick up quality material that is problem free at or near published Bid. Bottom line: nice coins that are properly graded, are easy to retail at a reasonable mark-up to Bid.

DOLLARS: A few CC Dollars in MS64 and MS65 sputter to levels that are more manageable. 1893CC in Choice, the third-best date of the popular run of Morgan CCs, increases to $4,100, this coming off a loss the previous week. Select Branch Mints in MS64 and MS65 suffered a similar fate this week as the CCs. Circ Dollars is where it's at right now as they forge their way higher from VG to AU.

PROOF SETS AND MINT SETS: Mint Sets moving higher this week are in the date range: 1960 to 1964; here though the jump in Bid is an attempt to keep pace with $23 Silver. Fewer sellers are seen offering Sets below melt. Buyers remain visible for most everything within both Proof Sets and Mint Sets with no real move toward widespread discounting. Now would be a good time to consider placing Silver State Quarters an d the like with clients as an affordable alternative to Silver Bars, Bags and Eagles.

COMMEMORATIVES: 1926 and 1926S Oregon Trail Memorial coins trek along a Northwestern path to $105 per example at the XF40 plateau. The high Bidder will take 100 pieces at this price. Move 'em along to someone who wants 'em. Support persists on paper for MS65 and MS66, but note that above average quality material sells for less a little too often. Classic Gold Commems are strong at current levels. Contemporary Gold Commems continue to possess one of the lowest premiums over Spot with a wide range of dates and designs available.

TYPE: Bids targeting Circulated Type coins now include many of the Early designs, among them the 1793 Flowing Hair Half Cent, a famous one year Type, now at $22K and $30K for XF and AU examples, respectively. No Drapery and With Arrows Liberty Seated Quarters (1853-1854) gain attention; $300 is the high Bidder's best offer for XF No Drapery pieces. Trade Dollars in XF and AU sail to a higher waterline with demand steadily increasing for nearly all dates within the series.

GOLD: A new world record close has been recorded for Gold Spot at 1,353.30 an ounce. Most of the Type Gold below is responding accordingly. Smaller denominations are seeing the biggest moves on a percentage basis including $5 Libs with Motto increasing 11% in MS63. Generic Double Eagles have adjusted slightly downward in MS62-MS64 as sufficient supplies remain available. Proof American Gold Eagles continue to have buyers at $1,600 an ounce for those dated prior to 2010.

The weekly COIN DEALER newsletter (the Greysheet) reports the national Dealer to Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Prices reported derive from the highest legitimate Bids and lowest legitimate Asks seen nationally; they do not necessarily reflect the levels at which any particular dealer might offer to buy or sell that coin. Bids reported consider activity in the certified sight-unseen market which already include consideration of certification costs. Bids for a sight-seen raw coin may be higher or lower than for a sight-unseen certified coin due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid due to the bidding adjustments of the high bidder, but will be strongly influenced by Bids which are higher or Sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. INVESTOR/COLLECTOR NOTE: The prices in this newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions; you should expect to pay a premium above Ask when purchasing coins in a retail transaction, you may also commission a Dealer for your purchases.

Security Made Simple

NGC's tamper-evident holders and state-of-the-art holograms have become the symbol of protection for your most treasured coins. And now, the world's most preferred third-party grading service empowers collectors and dealers with an innovative, user-friendly security feature: NGC online verification.

By entering the unique NGC serial number on a coin's label, you'll access everything you need to be sure a certified coin is authentic. Enlargeable images of the coin, captured by NGC before it was shipped, are displayed alongside attribution and grade information from NGC's own secure database. It's complete protection for you and your coins — any time you buy or sell, anywhere the hobby takes you.
